REMONSTRATIONS WITH THE UEC ON REPRESENTATIVES ELECT

On 17 November, the Union Election Commission (UEC) informed the political parties that if they want to remonstrate with the commission about the representatives-elect, they can do so by writing them a letter, in accordance with their rules and regulations. The letter said that political parties are to send a letter of objection to the UEC in accordance with the Election Rule 87 and Articles 67 and 68 of the respective Election Laws if they want to object a representative-elect or to claim the voting in the constituency is unfair. They also warned political parties who have made allegations to foreign media that they are acting against Article 64 of the Election Laws.<sup>2</sup>

INDEPENDENT PLANS TO EXIT POLITICS

An independent candidate in Nay Pyi Taw has abandoned his dream of becoming a parliamentarian forever after losing out to a candidate from the Union Solidarity and Development Party (USDP) during the elections. U Tin Aye, aged 68, was running for election in the Pyithu Hluttaw (Lower House) constituency in Lewe Township, Nay Pyi Taw. Initially, he had planned to file an official complaint against the outcome of the election results but later decided to later not to pursue the matter. He now plans to retire from politics and plans to start his own business. During the elections, U Tin Aye was competing against U Htay Win from the USDP and U Myint Oo from the National Unity Party (NUP). State media confirmed on 12 November that Htay Win had claimed the seat, with 68.5 per cent of total valid votes while U Myint Oo received 22 per cent, and U Tin Aye finished third on 9.5 per cent, with 11,392 votes. The figures show 76.3 percent of the 164,838 eligible voters cast a valid vote in Lewe.<sup>3</sup>

DESPITE FEW WINS, DEMOCRATIC PARTY RESOLVES TO FIGHT ON

The Democratic Party (Myanmar) will continue to push for democratic change in Myanmar despite winning only three seats at the elections, chairman U Thu Wai said. The party fielded 47 candidates and three of its members were elected to the Region/State Hluttaws in Bahan (1) and Bahan (2) constituencies, Yangon Region while a third candidate was elected in Chanayethazan (2) in Mandalay Region respectively. U Thu Wai added that “the election is just one process, one step. Our party is going to continue to exist and expand. We will continue with our plan which includes focusing on education, health and the social welfare of the public.”<sup>4</sup>

UNITY DEMOCRACY PARTY OF KACHIN STATE WILL CONTINUE TO EXPAND MEMBERSHIP

The Chairman of the Unity Democracy Party of Kachin State (UDPKS), Khet Tein Nan said that prior to the convening of parliament, the party would set out to recruit new members while at the same time take steps to fulfil the needs of existing party members. The UDPKS which had formed an alliance with the junta-backed Union Solidarity and Development Party (USDP) contested in all three tiers of parliamentary elections fielding 3 candidates in the Amyotha (Upper House) Hluttaw and 2 candidates each in the Pyithu (Lower House) and Region/State and Ethnic Nationalities Hluttaws respectively. At present the UDPKS has an estimated membership of over 20,000 members nationwide and party membership is mainly composed of Kachin, Shan, Bhama, Kadu and Kanan nationals.<sup>5</sup>

MINISTERS SEEK COOPERATION WITH KAREN PARTY

Two Burmese government ministers have reportedly met an influential monk, Ashin Pyinnyar Thar Mi in Kayin State and urged him to try and persuade the Phalon Sawaw Democratic Party (PSDP) to cooperate with the junta-backed Union Solidarity and Development Party (USDP). Ashin Pyinnyar Thar Mi is a consultant for the PSDP, which fielded 18 candidates for parliamentary seats in Kayin State in the 7 November elections, and was successful in having 9 candidates elected. According to sources, the prominent monk met with Information Minister Kyaw San and Religious Affairs Minister Brigadier General Thura Myint Maung at his monastery in Taung Kalay, Hpa-an township. The two ministers reportedly informed Ashin Pyinnyar Thar Mi that the government was ready to cooperate with the PSDP. However, the party would not work hand in hand with the government if it opposed the party's policies. The PSDP was one of three ethnic parties representing the Karen people in the election. The other two were the Karen People's Party and the Kayin State Democracy and Development Party.<sup>6</sup>

MAIN ETHNIC PARTIES PLAN TO SIT IN NEW PARLIMENT

Burma's two largest ethnic parties have said that they will claim their seats in Parliament when it is formed, despite their allegations of cheating by the junta-backed party that has been declared the winner of the elections. Leaders of the two parties, the Shan Nationalities Democratic Party (SNDP) and the Rakhine Nationalities Development Party (RNDP), said that they would join the Parliament for the sake of their people. "We will take our seats in Parliament even if other parties boycott it," said SNDP Chairman, Sai Aik Pao. "We want to use our position inside Parliament to improve the living standards of our Shan people." The SNDP, also known as the White Tiger Party, fielded 157 candidates in the election and won 57 seats. The RNDP, which enjoyed strong support in Arakan State, also said that it would not boycott the Parliament, but intended to challenge the results in some constituencies where the USDP was accused of ballot rigging. RNDP Chairman, Dr Aye Maung said that the party is "collecting evidence of cheating by the USDP during the election. When we are finished, we will send it to the Election Commission (EC)." He also said that his party intended to work to promote the equality of the ethnic Rakhine people and wanted to discuss the government's gas projects in Arakan State. The RNDP won in 35 of the 44 constituencies it contested.<sup>7</sup>

NDF SACKS DEPUTY WHO SOUGHT AUDIT

According to the party leader, Khin Maung Swe, the National Democratic Force (NDF) has voted to expel its deputy chairman, Thein Nyunt, over "irresponsibility" in disclosing internal party affairs to the media. Thein Nyunt responded that the NDF had failed to conduct an audit of party accounts as promised. "In accordance with party regulations, any member who discloses internal affairs to the public must be expelled. He violated that regulation. He made disclosures ... not only to journals but also to his friends," Khin Maung Swe said. The decision to remove Thein Nyunt came after 12 out of 15 NDF leaders from Rangoon, Mandalay and Tenasserim divisions voted for his expulsion during a meeting on 18 November. Thein Nyunt however has denied the claims and that he had not violated any party regulations. In turn he has accused the party leadership for failing to conduct a financial audit and that those who had not been elected were jealous and took the measures to have him

ANALYSIS

The results of the much debated and highly controversial elections in Myanmar as announced and published in the state-run media services indicate an overwhelming majority victory for the junta-backed Union Solidarity and Development Party (USDP). As expected, the USDP has defeated its rivals amidst allegations of vote rigging and general malpractice at polling stations during the elections. The outcome had been anticipated as the signals were that the military regime would once again prove to its people and the international community that nothing would stand in its way as it seeks to maintain to hold onto power.

With the outcome of the elections all but confirmed, the junta has taken the initiative to divert the attention of its activities by releasing pro-democracy leaders Aung San Suu Kyi. In doing so, the attention and focus of the elections and results have become secondary while attention is very much focussed on the pro-democracy leader, thus allowing the junta to freely manipulate the election process at its own will.

The announcement to allow political parties the freedom to make official complaints cannot be seen as sincere nor genuine since the process of filing complaints would be costly as well as time consuming. The likelihood will be that many parties and candidates will refrain from doing so since it would only jeopardize their interests.

While the majority of parties eagerly await the next step of the electoral process, the internal crisis within the NDF will hinder the moral of the party and all necessary measures should be taken to address the issue efficiently and discreetly. Myanmar's historical past has shown that internal party politics as well as party rivalries have provided opportunities for the military to step in to divide and rule. Under such circumstances, it would be wise for all opposition parties and ethnic groups to find a common ground as they strive to bring about change in Myanmar.
